7th December 2017

Message from the headteacher: We are preparing this week for Christmas festivities including nativity performances, parties and our end of year assembly. Please keep an eye out for dates and arrangements—party timetable on the back of this newsletter.

Christmas Lunch

Thank you to Mrs Morgan and her team for our wonderful Christmas lunch yesterday, they served 256. Thank you to the HSA for providing crackers to everyone.

British Legion Poppy Appeal

This year we raised an fantastic £370.50 for this charity. This is a superb sum which will be used by the British Legion to support past and present members of the armed forces.

Dickensian Evening

Our school choir sang beautifully at this event. Thank you to all the children, families and staff members or their support.

St Eustachius' Tree Festival

Please visit the festival until 10th December and vote for our tree—Number 39.

Mark Wickett Soccer School

Activity days are running on the 18th, 19th and 20th December for primary aged children.
