

Communication & Language

Children will be able to express themselves confidently, listen attentively and speak in a range of situations.

To learn the skills involved in listening and why this is important.

To learn new vocabulary linked to themes through vocabulary triangles.

To be able to talk in sentences.

To listen and engage with a range of different texts.

To understand what a question is and how to apply it.

To use new vocabulary learnt in appropriate context.

To be able to recount an event in the correct order.

To connect ideas together using correct vocabulary.

To be able to take a turn in conversation with familiar adults.

Can use past, present and future tenses within sentences.

Can attend and participate to a range of rhymes and songs.

Use conjunctions to help extend and articulate ideas.

To use appropriate social phrases throughout the day.

To join in with repeated refrains (N?)

Listen attentively to whole class inputs.

To be able to take a turn in conversation with their peers.

Can explain why things might happen.

To learn by heart a select range of nursery rhymes.

Listen to and talk about stories to build familiarity and understanding.

To retell a story in the correct order.

Listen attentively and participate within small group interactions.

To be able to take a turn in conversation with their peers.

Engage with and familiarise with non-fiction texts.

To be able to take a turn in conversation with their peers.

To be able to take a turn in conversation with their peers.

To be able to take a turn in conversation with their peers.

To be able to take a turn in conversation with their peers.

To be able to take a turn in conversation with their peers.